Background

Sam Sykes was called to the bar in 2015. He accepts briefs in all areas of commercial law and equity, including in corporations/insolvency, real property, construction and professional negligence.

Sam's clients range from individuals to small and large companies, liquidators, professionals, builders, lenders and insurers, meaning he knows that clients' needs come in different shapes and sizes. Sam understands that litigation can be daunting for inexperienced litigants. He focuses on providing pragmatic advice and solutions tailored to the client's specific requirements.

Outside of the law, Sam tries to juggle time between his obsessions for cricket, golf and footy with his wife, son, daughter and neurotic spoodle

Areas of Practice

- Commercial and Equity (partnership disputes; rectification of contracts, equitable fraud, misuse of confidential information, contract disputes)
- Real Property (relief against forfeiture, specific performance, contract for sale of land disputes)
- Corporations and Insolvency (statutory derivative claims, director disputes, shareholder disputes, unfair preference claims and insolvent trading)
- Professional Negligence (professional advisor claims including solicitor negligence)
